

Santa Arriving Today in Rocket Sleigh

IT'S TIME TO TELL IT TO SANTA!

News and Views . . .

and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

Although a little later than usual, the Christmas season will open with a bang today (Wednesday) in Hamlin with the coming of Santa and his Rocket Sleigh.

Most of the local stores have been featuring Christmas merchandise since Thanksgiving and have everything in readiness for Old Santa's appearance today.

The following bit of advice is taken from the Anson "Western Observer" and is just as fitting for the people of this area as it is to the Anson people.

"Is this trip necessary?"

"Stop the motor!"

"Time, wear and tear, the weather, and other considerations being what they are, can you justify an out-of-town Christmas shopping trip when Santa Claus is already breathing down your neck?"

"Besides, what is to be gained if you buy all those discount 'leaders' and lose more than you have saved in 'jacked-up' prices on other items purchased under the same roof, not to mention what you have spent on the trip."

"Also consider the wear and tear on nerves, shoe leather, tires and other vital parts of your body and that of the family gas wagon."

"And all these things are actually secondary to the real reasons for shopping at home, such as:

"Your home town merchant is a neighbor, not a stranger. The saleslady or salesman in the local store is a friend, who is interested in rendering extra service to make your shopping easier."

Those of you who missed the Saturday night finals of the Hamlin basketball tourney missed some real fine basketball.

Both the boys and the girls finals games were real cliffhangers with outcome not decided until the final second.

The public should be in for a real treat this season as both of the Hamlin clubs put on a fine exhibition of basketball.

The other day we received an "unsigned" letter suggesting several improvements in the editorial content of the Herald. Normally we just ignore any unsigned mail that we receive because we feel that anyone who does not think enough to sign their letter does not think much of what they have to say.

But in this case the writer is asking for some things that other people would probably like to see in the paper—including this editor—but unfortunately seem to be nearly impossible.

The writer would like to see a more complete Hospital report, including date of admission, those discharged since the week before, etc. The only way that this paper can get this kind of information is to carry it from two to three weeks late and this would serve no useful purpose.

Our present method of carrying the hospital news is to carry the names of everyone who is in the hospital at the time we go to press.

It is our opinion that while this is not the best possible situation but under the conditions that exist it is the better of the two choices.

The writer would also like to see more personal news—and so would we—but the only way of getting this kind of news is for people to call us when they have company or go somewhere.

More news of McCaulley, Sylvester and Junior High School has been requested. We have tried for some time to get a correspondent in both McCaulley, Sylvester and Neinda but without success. This is the only way that we can ever give these areas the coverage that they deserve and we would still like to have a reporter in each of these communities.

AGENT EXPLAINS BENEFITS OF SCREWORM PROGRAM TO AREA

Although Jones County is not in the area where sterile screwworm flies are currently being dispersed, farmers and ranchers in this county are still deriving the benefits of the Southwest Screwworm Eradication Program.

Kirby Clayton, county agricultural agent, has said that a number of local livestock producers have expressed the feeling that they have contributed or are being asked to contribute to a program in which they are getting none of the results. "This is not the case," he says.

Sterile flies are being dispersed in the 80,000 miles of Texas, and New Mexico where native screwworms normally spend the winter, he said, while temperatures are expected to kill them outside of the overwintering area. In all but a few abnormal years, screwworms do not overwinter in Jones County, the agricultural agent said.

"You could disperse millions of sterile flies in this county, but you wouldn't accomplish anything if you don't eradicate them in the 'incubator' of southern Texas and southwestern New Mexico from which they can move into the northern areas each spring," Clayton pointed out. "I dare say if sterile flies had not been released in the southern part of the state this year, the screwworm infestations experienced in this country would have been many times more numerous than they were."

Singing Sunday

The Jones - Fisher County Singing will be held Sunday 2 p.m. in the Foursquare Gospel Church. Many good singers will be among the large crowd expected to attend.

O. L. Cohorn, president of the singing organization said the public is cordially invited to tend.

COMMUNITY

The holiday season of parties opened at Old Glory Monday night, December 3, when the annual Faculty-Trustee party was held in the Old Glory Cafeteria. Christmas decorations were featured. The Christmas tree was a West Texas Mesquite cleverly decorated, and during the evening "silly" gifts were exchanged.

The buffet meal featured ham, green beans, candied sweet potatoes, cranberry salad, Waldorf salad, hot rolls and butter. Also numerous kinds of pies and plenty of iced tea and coffee. Carolyn Sanders and Stephanie Letz helped with the serving and clean-up.

Games of "42," "84," dominoes and Rook were enjoyed by the twenty-nine who attended. Mrs. Jane Pritchard was chairman of the event. V. R. Leverett is superintendent of the Old Glory Schools and Garret Spitzer is president of the Board of Trustees.

The regular monthly meeting of the Sons of Hermann was held Sunday, December 2, at the Sons of Hermann Hall at Old Glory. Refreshments were served to those who attended and plans were made for the Christmas party which was to be held Saturday, December 8. Officers for 1963 were elected and committees appointed as follows: Clarence Teichelman of Sagerton, president; Joe Ray Baltz of Sagerton, vice president; Marchell Nauert of Aspermont, secretary-treasurer; Wallace Dudensing of Sagerton, Warner Teichelman of Sagerton and Raymond Hoelscher of Haskell, trustees; Mrs. Carl Lunn of Sagerton, John Teichelman of Sagerton, Herbert Vahlenkamp of Old Glory, finance committee.

DELTA KAPPA GAMMA

Mrs. Cecil Klump, Mrs. Johnney Pumphrey, Mrs. T. E. Bell, Mrs. Tom Pritchard and Mrs. V. R. Leverett attended the meeting Saturday afternoon at Haskell of the Beta Chi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma. The group met in the clubroom of the Texas Hotel with the members from Weinert as hostesses. Mrs. Fred Monke of Weinert was Program Chairman for the subject "Know Thy Neighbor" and she, along with Mrs. Artie Mae Burkett of Haskell and Mrs. Scott Green of Haskell discussed clubs in our area.

Holiday songs were sung and gifts exchanged. Pie and coffee was served to the twenty-nine members present.

The January meeting will be a luncheon held at Aspermont. Feature for the program will be member participation of "Who Am I?" and will be characterizations of famous women.

Mrs. Bernice White and Mrs. Tillie Dipple hosted a party Friday afternoon in honor of the birthday of Judy White. The ten guests enjoyed a variety of games. The girls were served immediately upon arrival as the party started right after school and were served again later.

Residents of Old Glory were saddened last week at the death of Otto Hinz Jr., and Edwin Stremmel. The Hinzes had formerly lived at Old Glory when Mr. Hinz was employed by the Pumphrey Ranch. Ramona and Jimmy attended school here. They had several relatives in this area.

SCHOOL

The Old Glory Boy's Basketball team participated in the Noodle Invitational Tournament last week and were Runner-up team. They first defeated Peacock team on Thursday and Noodle team on Friday. In the play-off on Saturday night for first place they were defeated five points by Trent. This was a thrilling experience for the boys and their coach, Tom Pritchard. John Hunt is official scorekeeper. The team is composed of Donald Boles, Cloyd Lawson, Kenneth Spitzer, Tim Jennings, Charles Diers, Stanley Diers, Alton Boles, Danny Lammert, Marvin Vahlenkamp, and Terry Sellers.

The large trophy will be added to the trophy case in the hall. Cloyd Lawson was honored by being placed on the All-Tournament Team and received a small gold basketball. He was among the high scorers of the tournament.

We understand that Terry Sellers, Junior student from Sagerton accidentally shot himself in the leg Saturday while practicing a "quick draw." The weapon was a .22-pistol. The flesh wound was of minor nature.

The Old Glory Junior 4-H Club Boys had a regular meeting at 9:30 on Tuesday morning. The program featured four talks based on the "Breeds" of chickens, swine, cattle and sheep. Herbert Wooldridge discussed "chickens," Weldon Spitzer discussed "swine," Steve Letz discussed "cattle," and Gary Teichelman discussed "sheep." The last three boys named supplemented their talk with colored pictures showing the different breeds.

Jimmy Leverett, Clifford Gholson, Lyndell Quade and Kenneth Jones were appointed as the Christmas Committee and will meet with the new assistant adult leader, Mrs. Jack Jones, to make plans for the next meeting which will be the Christmas party.

Larry Flow, president, presided over the meeting. Steve Letz led the opening exercises. Adult leaders present were Mrs. Jones, and Mrs. V. R. Leverett. Other members present were Mike Baldree and Odie Horton.

Sharon Leverett who recently returned from attending the National 4-H Congress in Chicago spoke Monday afternoon to the Aspermont 4-H clubbers. She summarized activities of the trip; also told of how she received the all-expense trip, the responsibilities of the award and things she had learned. Sharon will speak to the Kent County Achievement Banquet at Jayton Saturday, December 15. She is scheduled to appear on the Harry Holt program on Monday, December 17.

BY AMY ADAMS

THEY'RE BOTH SPEECHLESS

Dear Amy:

My husband and I have a problem. We had an argument seven weeks ago and we haven't spoken to each other since. I refuse to give in because he is wrong. He won't give in either, but I'm weakening before he is and I don't want to.

I would appreciate any suggestions. Please print the letter and answer in the paper and I'll put it where he can read it.

Weakening

Dear Weakening:

The one that is more intelligent and that has the most common sense will give in first and you BOTH can decide to whom this applies!

Dear Amy:

I have two grandsons. My daughters expect me to baby-sit for their children constantly. All my time is taken up for them. After all, I would like to have a little free time for myself. I raised my children. Don't you think they should raise their own children? I don't want to hurt my daughters' feelings. Do you think I should tell them or keep it to myself?

Nana

Dear Nana:

I think you're right! You should tell your daughters if you feel they are taking advantage of you. If you make it too easy for them to unload their brood, they might surprise you with a few more!

Dear Amy:

I have a problem in my office. Everyone but myself is either on a diet or talking about food and weight. It's driving me batty. When I bring a piece of cake with my lunch, they make me feel like a criminal. One girl told another girl I brought fattening things on purpose just to make her drool. I've always been rather slim and can't help it if she is overweight.

These girls are ruining what once was a pleasant job. Any suggestions?

Slim

Dear Slim:

People who are fighting the battle of the bulge need all the help they can get. Slip away and eat the sweets in private like a good girl.

Dear Amy:

The high school prom is coming so soon and I was lucky enough to be asked by two boys. They are as different as night and day and I don't know which one to go with.

One boy is handsome and very popular. The other one is a real brain, doesn't dress sharp and has sad eyes like a poodle. I'd like to go with the first boy because I'd be the Queen of the Prom, but for some strange reason, I'm attracted to 'poodles.'

Could you help me make up my mind?

Marilyn

Dear Marilyn:

That strange feeling you have is your heart talking. Poodles do have a way of getting under one's skin, and as long as he doesn't bite, accept his invitation.

Dear Amy:

I was happily married until my husband got a job as a cookie salesman.

When he comes home at night he tells me all about the "cute cookies" he meets in his day's work. This infuriates me because I don't know whether to believe him or not.

He's always teasing me. Do you think I have anything to worry about?

Very Annoyed

Dear Annoyed:

He's teasing because you're taking it too seriously. Where is your sense of humor? Don't worry about the "cookies" as long as he brings home the bacon!

Dear Amy:

I've been noticing a change in my husband for several months. When I came across a girl's telephone number in his pocket I knew I had found the answer.

I called her up and she said that dated a few times but she certainly didn't know he was married.

Should I tell him I know about her or just go around with the knowledge bubbling inside me?

Must Know

Dear Must:

'Old Faithful' bubbles too before it blows its top. Before you blow yours, tell all and insist that he do likewise!

SAFETY HINTS GIVEN ON BUYING CHRISTMAS TOYS

The Texas Safety Association today advised Christmas shoppers to keep safety in mind when selecting toys for children.

J. O. Musick, General Manager of TSA, advised selecting toys that are sturdy and well-made.

"Cheaply constructed or breakable toys may come apart or be broken under strenuous child play," Musick said. "Broken or jagged edges from toys can cause cuts and infection."

He advised testing the strength of a toy to see how much bending it will take and whether it will last past Christmas Day.

"Choose the toy which is suitable to the strength of the child," Musick explained.

He further advised shoppers to beware of toys manufactured with sharp edges or pointed ends, and to check all playthings to make sure there are no parts which may become loose and find their way into the mouth.

"Babies and toddlers invariably follow the 'hand to mouth' rule for everything they touch. See that they do not play with small toys, marbles, coins, beads or other tiny objects," Musick said.

Other things such as stuffed animals with button eyes which may become loose, whistles with removable mouth pieces and pull-toys with small removable parts also are dangerous for small children.

The safety director reported that nearly 600 children under age five die each year in the U.S. as a result of suffocation from ingestion of small objects.

Last year in Texas, 16 children under age five died from ingestion of objects other than food.

He said shoppers should keep in mind the age, interest, and physical and mental abilities of a child in selecting toys.

"An archery set, dart game or chemistry set may become dangerous if a child does not know how to use them or is too young for such games," Musick said.

"It is sometimes necessary for parents to supervise the use of such toys, but children should not be overburdened with toys that require constant adult supervision."

He said electrical toys of any type are unsafe for the very young and that such toys for older children should be carefully selected.

"Inspect electrical toys for frayed cords or any defect which may cause shock. Teach your child how to handle electrical toys and warn him not to play with electrical equipment with wet hands or when wearing damp clothing," he added.

Musick reminded parents that even if a toy is safe, it may not stay that way.

"Inspection of toys and play equipment periodically is important. Check wooden toys for splinters, wagons for loose wheels and baby's rattle for cracks which may free the little stones inside. If satisfactory repairs can't be made, discard toy immediately."

He noted that toys can be hazards not only for children at play, but also for adults.

"Serious falls may result from toys left on steps, stairways, walks or in the yard. Have a place for toys and teach children to put them away," he concluded.

"Told you I'd have it purrin' like a Kitten."

It takes good gasoline, the proper oil to keep a motor running in top shape - to make it "purr." For lubrication and car-washing too... see us.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

Christmas is only two weeks away, it seems but a few weeks ago that we were saying that for last year. It isn't only we older people that time flies for, even the children now comment on how fast the time passes, so maybe the earth is turning faster than it did a long time ago. In the process of speeding up, it seems like the seasons have even gotten mixed up, when Christmas is nearly here and green leaves on the cotton, that isn't the way it used to be "in the good old days" either.

The temperature has dropped to as low as 28, but with several light freezes and no hard killing frosts, it seems that the cotton leaves have developed an immunity to cold weather. Since the leaves are still on the cotton some of it is still too green to strip and lots of farmers still have their cotton to gather yet.

Woodrow Goodwin went to Lubbock and attended barber school Friday and Saturday.

T. E. Dixon came in from Dallas Friday and spent the night with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner. He and Mrs. Dixon are staying in Dallas with the nine year old granddaughter, Norma Jean Morgan, who is seriously ill, and has spent the last three weeks in Baylor Hospital. It was thought for awhile that she was recovering, but a change for the worse came too soon. She is still in a very serious condition. The outcome will be only time can tell.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner, Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin and Linda, returned to Dallas, Saturday with their brother, to visit with the little girl and the other relatives there with her and they returned home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ford visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum last Wednesday night after prayer services.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Green, Stamford, visited last Thursday night with the pastor and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clois Henry and children, Snyder, arrived by plane Saturday and stayed with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry.

Mr. G. W. Wainscott is still in the Stamford Hospital. It seems that he has had days and better ones, they are talking of bringing him home if they get someone to stay with him, and help with the nursing, he has to have quite a bit of help.

Mrs. Elmer Joiner attended the Christmas Party for the Friendship Home Demonstration club, last Friday afternoon, in the home of Mrs. R. M. Young, out west of town. Fourteen ladies were present and a good time was had by all those attending.

Mrs. Bob Hale and son, Goodwin, and another lady, visited with her brother, Woodrow Goodwin, Sunday while his wife and daughter were gone to Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray and Dorothy went to Hanna Sunday to visit with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Carter and Mrs. Gray and Mrs.

Carter celebrated their birthdays with a dinner.

Rev. and Mrs. Derrel Lewis went to Stamford Sunday afternoon to see Mr. Wainscott.

A late Monday morning report on Mr. Wainscott tells us that he is improved and wanting to come home.

Mrs. Doyle Combs, Cathy, Johnny and Sherri, were visitors in the Goodwin home last Wednesday morning. Mrs. Combs had come over from Swenson to bring the children as they all were a little puny.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Reed of Lometa, Texas, are the proud parents of a daughter, Dana Renee, weighing 7 pounds and one ounce. She was born at 5 p.m. Nov. 29, in Rollins-Brook Hospital in Lampasas.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Reed, Lometa, and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Crowley of McCaulley. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lee of Lometa. Great-great-grand parents are Mr. and Mrs. Pat Thompson, also of Lometa.

Mr. and Mrs. Bo Hawkins Jr., of Aspermont are the parents of a new baby girl, Mary Lea. She was born here December 6 and weighed 6 lbs. 10 oz. The Hawkins have one other child, Bill. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Swenson of Avoca and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Hawkins Sr. of Aspermont.

ber 7 to Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Guelker of Roby. He weighed 7 lbs. and 2 oz. and was named Joe Don. Mrs. Orpha Terry of Roby is the maternal grandmother and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Guelker of Sweetwater are the paternal grandparents.

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER WANTS FARM INCOME TIED IN WITH THE NATIONAL ECONOMIC INDEX PLAN

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on route one looks at the economic index, his letter this week reveals.

I don't know where they get the figures, I know they don't use any of mine, but some government experts come out once a month with a report on what the cost of living index was the previous month.

Under this system, if the cost of living goes up so many points, as it has for the past several years, certain wage earners get an automatic increase in pay.

I was reading the figures for the past month and noticed that among the people getting an automatic increase were farm equipment workers. What I would like to know is why don't these experts figure out a way to give us farmers an automatic pay increase that's tied in with the economic index. It's the only way to meet the increased cost of farm equipment resulting from the increased pay for the farm equipment workers. It wouldn't be too hard to do. Since we don't get paid by the hour, it would have to be figured on a yearly basis, but I'd agree to wait till the end of the year for my check.

As I understand it, the value of a dollar fluctuates, it's not the same today as it was last month or last year, and this program is designed to see that workers get a living wage. When a dollar buys less, they get more dollars; when a dollar buys more, they get a little less, although this latter situation hasn't come up so far in the last 25 years. The experts say this program makes sense.

Well, I'll tell you, it's good enough as far as it goes, but it doesn't go far enough.

A living wage is not enough to get by on these days. It takes more than that. At least, there aren't very many people left willing to try it.

Excuse me, I've got to end this letter and get out and try to make some money farming. I need $40 bad. The picture tube on my television set has just busted.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Galveston's Old Federal Bldg.
Galveston Island is no stranger to Texas tourists. They bask in the sun almost year 'round in this recreational Gulf Coast playland.

Perhaps the most important element for a successful vacationland is having enough attractions to avoid tourist boredom. This is the key to Galveston's success, as there is plenty to see and do.

Least publicized, but far from least appreciated of its attractions, are its many fine homes and interesting buildings.

One of these is the Old Federal Building. Built in 1859, it housed both Confederates and Federals during the Civil War. This building is known to be the best example of Greek Revival Architecture in the entire southwest.

Old and New in San Antonio
San Antonio, one of South Texas' leading and most exciting cities, is known to all for Texas' leading and most exciting the historic city.

There also is a little known distinction held by San Antonio that combines both the old and the new. This is the distinction of being host to a modern manufacturing enterprise making one of the oldest instruments known to man—the flute.

These San Antonio-made flutes are used worldwide. There are only five other flute manufacturers in the nation.

Highland Lakes Vacationland
Some of the most scenic spots in Texas are located in the Highland Lakes of Central Texas.

This favorite vacationland for tourists and Texans is entirely man made, developed by harnessing the flow and power of the great and erratic Colorado River.

The first dam was built in 1890 to produce hydro-electric power. It created famous Lake Austin. This dam was destroyed in 1900, rebuilt in 1915, and the present dam built in 1938.

Now Lake Austin stands as only one of a chain of seven lakes stretching from Austin and winding almost 100 miles through the wooded hills to the northwest.

Three years of research on rust resistant small grain varieties by Texas A&M College shows that resistant varieties will produce some 2,000 to 4,000 pounds of high quality forage per acre as contrasted with 1,000 to 1,500 pounds per acre for susceptible varieties. Plant pathologists with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station say up to a third of the grazing value of small grains is lost annually to rust.

Data, covering a 20-year period, from the Ranch Experiment Station, Sonora, forms the basis for a recent publication of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station on the "Influence of Age and Fertility of Rambouillet Ewes." Copies are available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas. Ask for MP-596.

COMMITTEE EXPLAINS MEANING OF COTTON REFERENDUM VOTE

College Station—The meaning of a "yes" or "no" vote in the December 11 referendum on cotton marketing quotas was explained today by the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The State Committee said if two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum favor quotas, they will be in effect on the 1963 upland cotton crop and marketing penalties will apply to any "excess" cotton produced on a farm and price support at a level within the range of 65 to 90 percent of parity will be available to the farmers who comply with their farm acreage allotments.

On the other hand, if more than a third of the voting growers oppose the quotas, then there will be no quotas and no penalties applicable to the 1963 upland cotton crop, and price support to farmers who comply with their farm acreage allotments will be available at 50 percent of parity as directed by law.

Allotments are not affected by the referendum. They will remain in effect—whether or not quotas are approved—as a means of determining eligibility for the available price support, the committee said.

The Secretary of Agriculture is directed by law to proclaim quotas for the next crop when the cotton supply exceeds normal, but growers themselves decide whether or not quotas will be used, explained the committee.

tee. Previous votes on quotas have been favorable.

The committee pointed out that the Administration plans to recommend new cotton legislation early in 1963. It is anticipated, however, that such legislation would supplement rather than substantially change the basic program choices to be presented for growers' determination in the December 11 referendum.

All farmers who engage in the production of upland cotton in 1962 are eligible to vote in the referendum, and are urged to do so by the State committee.

Allotments for individual farms will be available to the growers prior to the referendum, the committee said. All cotton producers who have questions on the upcoming vote are urged to visit their local ASCS office for answers.

Straight as an Arrow

In Archery you score only when you hit the target. To score well, you must have straight arrows.

When you attend church, it makes it easier to stay on the straight path. The church wants to help you in all ways of life, but can only do so, if you stay within its circle. Attend church and know the joy of a good life.

"For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints."

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

NOW ... NO TAX ON TRIPS BY SANTA FE

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—After a four-year test, May - June primary election set-up may be on its way out.

A cursory check of legislators at a recent gathering here found strong support, particularly among the big-city members who had Republican opponents, for a return to the August - September primary system.

Growth of the Republican party in Texas means that Democrats now face hard campaigning, in many districts, in the fall months, in addition to the strenuous spring campaigns. Many legislators are talking seriously about the primaries to August and September. This, so voters won't have to be whipped up to voting moods twice in a year.

There is some strong resistance to returning to the old way, however.

Sen. Abraham Kazen Jr. of Laredo, a member of the special election law revision committee, said a change like this would require a complicated revision of the code that would be almost impossible to accomplish during a regular session.

Kazen represents an area in South Texas where thousands of migrant farm workers, who leave home for the summer and fall, have had their first chance to vote in the primaries under the May-June system.

Some legislators would block a change because so many of the school teachers are at home to vote in May, but are in colleges or on trips in the summer. The late Rep. Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio, who pushed for the change to spring primaries, once said that August run-offs worked a real hardship on candidates like himself, since many of their financial backers were out of the state during the summer.

POLL TAX CONTROVERSY—The Texas Election Study Committee heard many divergent opinions on the requirements for a voter registration law during its public hearings in the senate chamber.

Main point of discussion was whether or not a literacy test should be required if the poll tax system is abolished.

League of Women Voters, represented by Mrs. Maurice H. Brown of Waco, did not approve of a literacy test. Mrs. Brown said her group recommended a uniform registration plan for all voters, and offered the committee a draft of a bill which calls for permanent registration.

Several witnesses, including Isaac Satterfield of Marshall, a member of the state Democratic Executive Committee, advocated a literacy test.

Senator Kazen spoke out against it. He said since no literacy test now is required, he saw no reason why it should be necessary. "The only reason for a literacy test is to keep someone from voting," Kazen reported.

Roy R. Evans, secretary-treasurer of the state AFL-CIO, said his organization opposed any discrimination against a person's national origin, financial status or educational background. The AFL-CIO also advocated a permanent registration plan, under which a voter would have to re-register only if he failed to vote in a two-year period.

WATER AID CHEAPER—Cities and water districts will be able to borrow from the State Water Development Board at a slightly lower interest rate as the result of the sale of $15,000,000 more in bonds.

First Boston Corporation, National Bank and Trust were low bidders with an effective interest rate of 3.1325 per cent.

This will lower the Board's present lending rate .04 per cent to a rate of 3.7132 per cent. The lower rate will apply to loans made after mid-January.

LIVESTOCK EQUAL PEOPLE—Texas has as many head of livestock as it does people.

According to an estimate by the Texas Animal Health Commission the livestock population is 10,000,000.

State Health Department estimated that the people population reached 10,000,000 last summer.

An audit of the State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners showed that there's more than one veterinarian for every 10,000 head of livestock. During the 1962 fiscal year, 1,184 vets renewed licenses, 78 took exams to become veterinarians and seven took our reciprocal licenses.

There are 8,700 medical doctors licensed to practice in the state, or one doctor for every 1,150 persons.

CRIME CLIMB SLIGHT—Major crime in Texas was way below the five per cent nationwide increase for the first nine months of 1962, according to an FBI report. A survey of crime in 12 representative cities showed an increase of only 0.29 per cent over the same period last year.

Report is a tabulation of murders and non-negligent homicides, forcible rapes, robberies, aggravated assaults, burglaries, larceny over $50 and auto thefts.

Total major crimes in 12 Texas cities amounted to 49,747 offenses for the first nine months of 1962, compared to 49,399 for the same period in 1961.

Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston, Lubbock, San Antonio, Waco and Wichita Falls are the cities referred to.

The FBI warned merchants to be alert to the shoplifting trend as the Christmas shopping season progresses. They also cautioned shoppers against leaving packages unattended in unlocked or in plain view in locked cars.

TAX PROPOSALS—The Texas Commission on State and Local Tax Policy recommend that the state abandon the ad valorem tax as a source of revenue in 1968.

The state property tax, which once was a primary source of income, now comprises only four per cent of the state's total tax take.

Commission stated that under the current system of assessment, the tax is "so patently inequitable that there can be no reasonable argument for retaining it as a part of the state's revenue system without substantial change."

LVN PROGRAM—The Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners brought the total of vocational nurse programs in the state to 114 when it accredited Deaf Smith County Hospital School of Vocational Nursing at Hereford and Groom Memorial Hospital School at Groom.

Licensing of 781 new vocational nurses as a result of October examinations brought the total number of licenses to 26,507 for women who have qualified since the Vocational Nurse Law went into effect on September 7, 1951.

TRANSITION GOVERNOR—A suite of rooms in Austin's Driskill Hotel has become the seat of "transition government" for Governor-elect John Connally.

He works four days a week in a suite which, appropriately, is titled the Caucus Room.

In this office, just six blocks from the Governor's office which he will take over on January 15, is a staff of fifteen persons.

Connally's administrative assistant, Bill Fowler, says their present task is to send out 18,000 thank-you letters, study applicants and recommendations for the 278 appointments the new governor will make to the state boards and commissions in 1963.

In what amounts to a cream course in state operation, Connally is conferring with officials of state agencies and members of the legislature.
